The Milano Montagna Video Awards contest collects videos not supported by major sponsors, dedicated to mountain culture, made by emerging filmmakers.

This edition creative areas will be:

This section collects videos which have as their main subject the sports that are linked to the world of mountains and outdoors (ski, alpinism, trekking, snowboarding, slackline, longboard, climbing and so on)
2. Mountain, nature and culture. Tell us about the rediscovery of the landscape, of nature and of the culture of mountain areas. This section collects videos that show the natural mountain environment and the footprint left by man on the landscape, together with the culture and traditional heritage of people and communities that are linked to mountain life
