

RULES

THEMES AND CATEGORIES

The Milano Montagna Video Awards contest collects videos not supported by major sponsors, dedicated to mountain culture, made by Italian and foreign emerging filmmakers.

This edition creative areas will be:

1. Sports e outdoor. Tell us a story about sport and adventure...and everything is about mountain and outdoor!

This section collects videos that have as main subject the sports related to the mountain and outdoor world (skiing, mountaineering, trekking, snowboarding, slackline, longboard, climbing and others).

2. Nature and landscape. Tell us about discovering the landscape, nature and the deep contact with it.

This section collects videos that are able to highlight through images and stories, the importance of find a conscious and deep contact with nature.

3. Culture and traditions. Show us the potential of landscapes and mountain communities between tradition, economy, culture and people.

This section collects videos that tell stories of people or communities related to mountain life with particular attention to the new possibilities offered by the territories and mountain communities from a cultural, historical and economic point of view.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIAS

Participation is free.

Only limit is 18+. You can participate individually or in groups, sending a single video or more than one, to one or more sections, by filling out an entry form for each video candidate.

Videos made specifically or previously produced are admitted to the competition, provided they were made after 1 January 2016.

Videos must have a maximum duration of 15 minutes.

HOW TO APPLY

The works, in MPEG4 - H264.MP4 - MP4 - AVI (or similar) format and weighing less than 10 GB, must be sent to videoawards@milanomontagna.it through wetransfer (or similar) no later than September 3, 2018.

The email must have as its object the title of the work and the name of the author as below: SURNAME.NAME.TITLE

Required attachments:

- ANNEX A. Digital photo of the author (not in photo format, at least 300 ppi) and personal data (name, surname, telephone number, email address). In the case of works presented by a group, the email must contain an entry form for each participant;
- ANNEX B. Short biography and description of the work (max 2000 characters in total, spaces included);
- ANNEX C. Video files;
- ANNEX D. Application form completed in full and signed.

N.B. Each attachment must be named as follows: ex. ANNEX_B.NAME.SURNAME

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

---

The authors are solely responsible for what is presented in the video for all legal purposes, and exempt the organization from any burden, ensuring that the same videos are not encumbered by any rights. The organizers will not be responsible for any demands for compensation made by the subjects that appear in the posted video.

Participants will consent to the processing and disclosure of your personal information according to Articles. 7, 10, 11 of Italian Law no. 675/1996 and Article. 13 of the Italian Legislative Decree n. 196/2003.

Participation in the competition implies acceptance of these rules, including the rules on privacy.

Milano Mountain Festival will have a screening of the videos during public events, and publication on the website www.milanomontagna.it and YouTube channel.

CONCLUSION

---

After a first selection of about 30 projects by Milano Montagna staff a jury, headed by Guido Perrini, will choose a winner for each category and an overall winner. The Jury, which final judgement is unquestionable will consider both technical and content aspects such as originality and relevance to the proposed theme.

TIMING

The names of the selected candidates will be published on our website www.milanomontagna.it and notified through email before the 10th October 2018.

During Saturday 27th October winners of Video Awards will be announced and their shorts shown during the night.

All projects will be shown during Sunday 28th October, according to the surnames, divided by category.

For more informations:

+39 347 983 6241

videoawards@milanomontagna.it

Produced by

With the patronage of Charity partner

